MOTION FOR REVISED PROTECTIVE ORDER

The United States hereby moves that the Court issue the attached Revised Protective Order following a 14-day period for any defense counsel to file objections. As of the present date, five of the ten defendants have assented to the Revised Protective Order. Per the District Court's instructions at the last status conference, given that not all defendants have assented to Revised Protective Order, the government is filing the present motion to allow the defendants to raise any objections to the Revised Protective Order. The government believes that any such objections should be filed within 14 days.

Respectfully submitted,
